

IN THE LABOR WORLD.

The International Association of Marble Workers will hold its annual convention at Washington, D. C., June 7.

Governor Draper of Massachusetts vetoed a bill which provided that no public employee shall be required to work more than eight hours a day.

An eight-hour day and several other important concessions to labor are proposed in a bill recently introduced in the Canadian Parliament.

The Hotel and Restaurant Employees International Alliance and Bartenders' International League of America will meet in Boston next year.

The Moving Picture Operators' Union of San Francisco, Cal., was recently admitted to the San Francisco Labor Council as an auxiliary to the theatrical stage employees.

The Rockmen and Excavators' Union of Greater New York has made a demand for higher wages. The rockmen want an increase from $2 to $2.50 and the excavators ask for a raise from $1.50 to $1.80.

The present jurisdiction of the Cigar-makers' International Union includes the United States, Canada, Cuba and Porto Rico, and it is expected that the Philippine Islands will soon be added.

Typographical Union No. 16, of Chicago, has recently adopted a resolution which forbids candidates for the union's elective offices to canvass for votes among the employees in the different printing offices.

The next annual convention of the International Union of Printing Pressmen will be held in Omaha, Nebraska, next June. The delegates from California are determined to make a strong fight to have the next convention called for San Francisco.

The report of the ninth annual conference of the British Labor party, recently published, shows that at the close of the 1908 there were affiliated 172 trades unions, with a total membership of 1,121,256; and two Socialist societies, with a membership of 27,465; an aggregate of 1,148,721.

An organization that has become part of the American Federation of Labor has been established in Washington, D. C. The new body is composed of representatives from all organizations that have a label, and the purpose is to promote the union label products in all parts of the United States.

There was a decided falling off in 1908 in labor strikes, and the record for arbitrations was made that year, according to the report of the Massachusetts State Board of Arbitration and Conciliation sent to the legislature recently. Applications for the adjustment of one hundred and forty controversies were considered, adjustments made in thirteen cases; twenty-four cases are pending and decisions were given in one hundred and thirteen cases.

An organization to be known as the Hucksters and Peddlers' Protective Association, which is planned to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor, has been formed in able benefit to the general public. Underselling and favoring of certain customers will become things of the past in Memphis, according to the plans of the organization. The organization has a large number of members already and is reported to be rapidly gaining.

The Gessco Pure Food Co., Le Roy, N. Y.

Had a nice visit there; went on up to the strip near Perry and saw our old home place and the old neighbors. Found everything looking nice. We started on to Oregon the 7th of April, leaving Guthrie, Okla., at 7:30 Monday morning, and by 3 o'clock we were in Newton, Kan., where he had to make our first change. Left there about 9 o'clock Monday night, and Tuesday morning found us in Colorado, where we could see the snow-capped mountains, the most prominent one of which was Pike's Peak. There wasn't much vegetation there; it was snowing most of the time. The next states were Arizona and New Mexico, which were about the same as Colorado. But the most beautiful state of them all was California. The most wild flowers of every kind and color were in bloom. The mountains were covered with snow, while down in the valleys the grass was green and flowers in bloom. The road wound around the mountains and through the dark tunnels until we came to the valley between the Sierra Nevada and Coast Range Mountains. The Sierra Nevada was looked to be about two hundred miles off, and the Coast Range about one hundred and fifty, all covered with snow. We traveled through the valley about half a day, which was as level as a table. There are great fruit farms in California—most all kinds of fruit. Finally we came to Stockton, which is a nice town. There we took the train for Sacramento, the grand old capital. Arrived there about 6 o'clock in the evening, and left there at 1 o'clock that night. Friday morning, bright and early, we came to the Sacramento river, which is a very nice but small river running through the valley between the mountains. We soon came to the Shasta Springs, which is a nice place. The train stopped here five minutes. Most everyone got off to get a drink of Shasta water, which is like soda stirred in water. The water runs down the side of the mountains in great sheets. Friday evening about 3 o'clock we landed at Weed, Cal., and stayed until Saturday morning, and by 12 o'clock we were safe at Holland, where we boarded the pretty little steamer Klamath, and last of all, but not least, we arrived at Klamath Falls Saturday evening, the 11th of April, about 3 o'clock. Klamath Falls is a nice little town of about 2,800 people. A new railroad has just been built here, and today, the 20th of May, the first passengers came into Klamath Falls over the road.

Fearing I may take up too much space, I will ring off.

A Friend, Stella Mann.

Notable Track and Field Meet. (Herald Special.)

Boston, Mass., May 28.—Seldom in the thirty-five years of intercollegiate athletic track and field championships has there been such a wealth of runners, leapers and weight hurlers of high grade as gathered today for the annual two days' meet in the Harvard stadium, nor has the outcome of the contest ever been doubtful. The meet promises to be one of the most successful of the whole intercollegiate series, though it is hardly expected that the record-breaking performances will be as numerous as in the meet two years ago, when six new records were established out of the thirteen events contested. Today was elimination day, with trials in all of the events except the mile and two mile runs. A certain number are to qualify in each event, and the finals, together with the long distance runs, will be held tomorrow.

There will be a regular meeting of Palestine Chapter No. 395 this evening at 7:45 o'clock, in Masonic hall. All members are requested to be present. Visitors welcome.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

A sensible thing about a man's being extravagant is how it keeps his family from being.

The fun about a man having an artistic temperament is how it convinces his family it ought to support him.

A man who had to tip his family the way he is glad to do with waiters in a restaurant would want a divorce. —New York Press.

FEEES IN TRUST CASE RETURNED.

County Attorney Brady Takes Final Action in the Matter.

Austin, Texas, May 27.—The final chapter in the famous Brady fee case was reached today, when District Attorney James R. Hamilton of this county paid into the state treasury $10,309 in behalf of the state, which were the excess fees collected by County Attorney Brady in the prosecution of the anti-trust cases, and in accordance with the decision of the supreme court that the anti-trust act of 1903, repealing the act of 1899. These fees were collected in the settlement of the Harvester, Fort Worth live stock commission and the miller combine cases. Judge Brady paid the money to Hamilton a short time ago.

NO MONEY FOR INSPECTOR.

Governor Said to Have Reduced the Horticultural Appropriation.

Austin, Texas, May 27.—It is said that the governor's pruning knife has cut rather a deep gash in the appropriations made for the department of agriculture, and as a consequence, Major Sam H. Dixon, chief clerk of that department, is somewhat down in his boots, so to speak. The report is that the governor has cut out the appropriation of $10,000 called for in the nursery inspection law, and which without an appropriation renders that law next to worthless, as it cannot be enforced without money. Then another item said to have been sliced out of the appropriation is that of $5,000 for the purpose of conducting and organizing farmers' institutes over the state. Commissioner Kone has been devoting considerable time to this branch of the work, and if the appropriation is cut out it will necessarily put a quietus on the continuation of this work. Even the appropriation of $1,500 for postage stamps is said to be endangered.
